

BATTLE AT THE BERRICS V

This is flatground only, but that doesn't mean anything on the flatground counts.

No feet on the ground. That means no, no complies.

No handplants.

No bonelesses.

No grabs.

No doing tricks that slide on the ground if your opponent popped his trick.

Last letter gets two tries.

Offensive toe drag gets one do over.

Defensive toe drag has a bigger margin for error, but will ultimately be decided by the referee.

Let's keep it clean. Let's keep it lean. This is the Battle at the Berrics and there's only gonna be one winner, so may God have Mercy on your souls.
